36th Annual Session of West Texas State Opened With Good Increase

Registration of Students to Continue All This Week; Shortages of Living Space

Registration of students in West Texas State started Tuesday and will continue throughout this week. Most of the students registered by last night, but no figures were available from the Registrar's office. However, it was indicated that there will be a good increase in attendance in spite of the shortage of housing facilities.

President J. A. Hill stated Tuesday that he estimated fully 300 students had been turned away because of the shortage of rooms in the dormitories and in the rooming houses of Canyon. There has never been such a demand for rooms in dormitories. It had been hoped that the addition to Randall Hall could be finished for the opening of the fall session, but no materials were available to even start the project.

It was indicated that the Freshman class will show a very good increase in attendance. Upper classmen usually are the last to report for registration.

All classes are underway today.

Murder Case Is Transferred to Randall County

A murder trial from Potter county was transferred to district court in Canyon Tuesday by Judge Henry S. Bishop.

The case is that of M. E. Thompson and Elbert Day, who are charged with the murder of City Detective Lem Savage in Amarillo.

The date of the trial has not been set.

Thompson and Day were brought to Amarillo last Friday evening from federal prison in Leavenworth, Kan. They are in the custody of Bill Lampe, United States marshal, and are in jail under special guards provided by the Amarillo Police Department. When they enter the court room in Amarillo they are under heavy guard and wear leg irons.

They were indicted on Aug. 22 for the murder of City Detective Lem Savage. Both are now serving federal prison sentences. Thompson is serving 99 years for kidnapping a young Amarillo woman in his escape from Amarillo after the shooting of Detective Savage. Day is serving five years for interstate automobile theft.

Dr. Hill Gets Two Offers For Single Purpose

Pleased but perplexed, Dr. J. A. Hill today wondered how he could accept two $800 gifts to the proposed West Texas State chapel under identical terms.

Each donor wants to pay for the memorial window back of the altar.

Dr. Hill was pondering this situation when he went to Carson county yesterday in the interest of this drive and the campaign to raise $60,000 to finish the Plains Museum. This trip was made at the request of David M. Warren, publisher of the Panhandle Herald, and Carson County ex-students.

Cash and pledges in the chapel campaign now total about $15,000, Dr. Hill said. The goal is $50,000.

Pig Show Will Be Held Saturday at Umbarger

Col. B. E. Brumley of Hereford will judge the pigs. The boy who wins top honors in the local Pig Club Show in this class will compete in a District Show to be held at Amarillo September 29.

Tires Will Be Scarcer Despite Radio Reports

In spite of the rumors over the radio and through other news sources, the local board has been informed by the district office that tires will be scarcer for some time to come and we will not receive any supplement this month for Grade one passenger tires.

"They tell us that there is a possibility that tire rationing will continue until June, 1946. We are therefore urging everyone to take extra precautions to save rubber for some time yet," said Dan Sanders, chairman of the rationing board.

Mail Overseas Parcels Soon

Red Cross Gives Advice as to Desirable Articles to Men Serving Overseas

Christmas parcels for the Army Personnel overseas must be mailed during the period beginning Sept. 15, 1945 and ending Oct. 15, 1945. However in a statement intended to lighten the burden of Army Postal Units, General Eisenhower predicted that only 700,000 of the 3,100,000 troops in the European Theater of Operations would be left there by New Years day. He urged servicemen's families to hold up Christmas parcels, "if it appears the soldiers will be on their way home by Christmas." During the period stated above, request from addressees are not required for Christmas parcels mailed to Army personnel. Each parcel should be endorsed "Christmas Parcel." Since Navy, Coast Guard and Marine Corps personnel may receive parcels without a request at any time of the year, it is not the policy of the Navy Department to encourage the mailing of parcels during any particular period each year. The Navy Department suggests, however that Christmas parcels be mailed not later than Oct. 15, to afford some degree of probability of delivery prior to Christmas Day. The War and Navy Departments points out that members of the armed forces are amply provided with food and clothing and the public is urged not to include such matter in gift parcels. Christmas parcels may not exceed 5 lbs. in weight or 15 inches in length or 36 inches in length and girth combined. Not more than one Christmas parcel may be mailed in any one week when sent by or on behalf of the same person or concern to or for the same addressee.

The Navy Department, in announcing the results of a survey made by the Navy Mail Service, states that the Navy men prefer above all else to receive letters, but that of gifts the ten preferred in order of their popularity are:

1. Photographs.
2. Canned snack foods (such as olives, sardines, nuts, etc).
3. Books.
4. Writing cases or portfolios.
5. Service watches.
6. Good pipes.
7. Pens.
8. Engraved identification tags.
9. Waterproof wallets.
10. Cigarette lighters.

The five most disappointing articles to find in a package from home, in the order of their unpopularity are:

1. Candy.
2. Cake.
3. Cookies.
4. Fancy shaving kits.
5. Cigarettes.

The reasons given were that the food is usually inedible upon arrival, that there is no way to carry and stow the toilet kits and that Navy men are issued an ample supply of cigarettes.

Buffs Face Tough Game Saturday Nite at Baylor

Nobody was deceived by West Texas State's 56-7 win over a boyish eastern New Mexico State eleven Saturday night, but the football scouts present left the stadium mumbling in their beards.

"That was fine pass and punt protection you revealed!" one scout remarked to Coach W. A. (Gus) Miller, with well-timed sarcasm.

For the Buffaloes, guided by Captain Hoss Bledsoe, failed to get off a pass or a punt. And their offense was strictly a get-the-ball-and-run affair. What his chunkers, mainly Captain Bledsoe and big Hap Rogers, can do with their throwing arms is strictly Coach Miller's professional secret.

Nevertheless, the tussle with Baylor University in Waco next Saturday night has the local mentors walking the fence lines of Buffalo stadium. It is their first meeting with the Southwest Conference member and they were not much impressed by the work of the Buffs last week. Baylor has three times the manpower West Texas State can muster.

But Coaches Miller and W. W. (Windy) Nicklaus have some fine young backs in Bledsoe, Stafford, Greenfield, Bradford, and Rogers, and good chargers in Lyons and Shaver and Glasgow in the line. Also, White and Terry are two powerful freshman guards. Sparked by these men, the Buffaloes are potentially dangerous on offense but considerably lacking in defense.

West Texas State's lineup this week is expected to be the same as that of last week.

Stolen Car Was Found Sunday

The car of C. L. Thompson was stolen Saturday night at Buffalo Stadium, but was recovered in Amarillo Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson had visited T. C. Thompson at the hospital and were returning home when Mrs. Thompson spotted the car standing along the street. The police had been looking for the car throughout the area.

Election on Canyon School Tax Rate Will Be Held in Canyon Saturday

School Board President in Statement Gives Position of Trustees on Tax Rate

The taxpayers of Canyon Independent School District will be asked to vote on the proposal of giving authority to the trustees to raise the tax rate from $1.00 to $1.50 on the $100 valuation. A special election will be held Saturday at the City Hall. All taxpayers in the district are urged to go to the polls and express their opinion on this important matter.

Paul Lindsey, chairman of the Board of Trustees, stated yesterday that the trustees did not contemplate setting the rate at the maximum of $1.50. The trustees would set the rate to cover only the expenses which are absolutely necessary to maintain the schools at their present high level, and then keep the property in good condition.

Mr. Lindsey stated:

"The trustees hope that taxpayers will discuss this proposition with members of the board of trustees before going to the polls. Our hands are tied so far as the future of the schools are concerned. If we are not allowed additional money, then the property of the school cannot be kept in repair, and the school maintained as it should be.

"If the voters will give the board authority to increase the tax rate, we shall not go to the maximum, but shall use only such portion of the tax rate as is absolutely necessary to keep tne school up to standard.

"If the taxpayers do not wish to increase the tax rate, then there is nothing for the trustees to do but neglect needed repairs on the plant, and probably abolish functions in the schools which the people are asking for the benefit of the children of the district.

"The trustees are taking the position that we are the servants of the people of this district. We shall do what we can with the money that is given us. When the money runs out there is nothing to do but stop. We feel that it would be very disastrous to allow the school property to continue being neglected. Repairs which are not made will prove very costly in the future. The trustees have been as diligent as possible in the operation of the schools. We are not paying our teachers as much as other schools pay, simply because we have not had the money. Other expenses of operation are held to the minimum, as we believe that the taxpayers would want us to do.

"Whatever is the decision of the taxpayers next Saturday will be the decision of the trustees. This statement is made so that people of the district may know, but we are convinced that it would be unwise not to do the things which are needed, and which were outlined in the article published last week in The News," concluded Mr. Lindsey.

Thompson Hardware Co. has bought the property of Mrs. G. R. Reid, just south of the present store.

BUY MORE VICTORY BONDS!

SLOWING RECONVERSION

Every American has been thrilled by the thought that soon he would be able to buy the things which he needs, and the things which he has had his heart set on for months, or perhaps years.

Yet he may be greatly disappointed. Recent events are none too rosy for the post-war period. He may not be able to get what he wants as he wants it.

The ugly head of inflation has risen, and is rising higher. Inflation is brought about when there is only one article on the market which a dozen or so people want, and they start to bid for said item. As a result it goes to the highest bidder, who does not realize that he has not only wasted his money, but likewise has set a standard on that article for future sales. When the manufacturer finds that the public will buy at a higher price, he is pretty apt to adjust his costs to boost the price so that the consumer must pay such a higher price in the future.

Inflation is usually brought about when cost of production goes far above the normal. Right now there is a tendency to boost costs.

Labor and raw material are the chief costs of any manufactured article. Labor enters into the cost of raw materials, so that in most instances labor is the basis of most manufacturing costs.

The labor situation is desperate in the nation, and is steadily getting worse. It was proposed a few weeks ago that capital and labor get together at the conference table and agree upon a basis for permanent peace. That sounded like a sensible thing, but evidently is misfired. It is ridiculous that a nation which produced the maximum of war goods cannot get together and manufacture those peace time things which the people need. Merely cussing those who are to blame will not solve the situation.

Most of us say that CIO is at the bottom of labor difficulties. At least, CIO has called more strikes than AFPL, and is now proposing to call additional strikes if management does not meet its demands. It is unlikely that many of us in this section of the nation, free from the influences of the worst elements of capital and labor, can realize the true situation. Out in the wide open places we realize that business cannot succeed without the loyal support of labor; while labor realizes that it would not have a job without capital being furnished to keep going. Every business which succeeds must have a head, or a boss. To eliminate the head of the institution will kill the enterprise—even a labor union. But it seems that CIO cannot control its own members. The plight is therefore dangerous.

Henry Ford laid off 10,000 men the other day because other men couldn't get hold of materials for his plants. Ford amazed the world several years ago by voluntarily raising wages to the unknown price of $5 per day. Other manufacturing plants, which paid $3 to $4, said that it would break Ford. Henry has been the great individualist in the manufacturing world. He is reported to have treated his workmen fairly. He was opposed to unionism to a certain degree, believing that each man should be paid according to his ability, rather than according to the cast system, which is the weakness of the unions. The nation was rather amazed when Ford cheerfully submitted to complete union and government control during the war. But in this case he had no choice. A mail order house tried to resist, and the president was thrown out of his office by soldiers.

Now that the war is over, Ford wants to resume management of his vast plants, and wants men who work for him to earn their wages. It is evident that CIO has different ideas.

A soldier from the Amarillo Field was down Saturday and revealed to the Newsman that he was "one of those CIO members you read about." He boasted of his membership, which was not to his credit. But his further statement was alarming: "I want to get out of this uniform and back to Detroit where things are happening. We are going to see the biggest upheaval this nation has ever witnessed."

We asked about his former job, and what he was making. He drew $150 per week during the war—but he was not satisfied. CIO has asked for a 30% increase and this man thinks they will get it. He affirmed that he expressed the sentiment of CIO members in Detroit and of the automobile industry.

His most alarming statement was his defiant attitude toward the owners of the plants and the managers. He talked like a Communist in declaring that management drew far too great a share from the automobile business. His salary of $150 per week looked pretty small to him in comparison to $250,000 per year paid to the president of the company.

So there you have the other side of the picture. The outlook is not rosy. We may expect most anything to break out which will impede reconversion, and bring on inflation.

In the meanwhile, it is the safe thing to be sure that you are getting your money's worth when you buy, and to put your money in Victory Bonds until such a time as you are able to invest at reasonable prices.

The policy of General MacArthur toward the Japs is becoming evident. MacArthur was unwisely criticised when he first landed in Japan for the kid glove attitude toward the Japs. Yet how silly and how disastrous would have been any other course. We had a few thousand men in Japan; and there were more than three million armed Japs in the home islands when MacArthur took over. An act of treachery would have resulted in the loss of practically all of these men had an unwise attitude been adopted. We have maintained that MacArthur knows the Jap mind better than most Americans; and, therefore, he is in better position to act wisely.

Congress is determined that the Army and Navy discharge men more rapidly. It is suggested that the brass hats in Washington are determined to keep as many men under arms for as long a period as possible. This attitude is not helping public opinion, either on the question of continuing Selective Service, or of passing the military training bill for all young men. The people generally are opposed to rule by the military except in time of war, and the present situation is not strengthening the situation on either of these measures.

We have funny ideas. Tojo tried to kill himself; we nurse him back to health so that we may kill him legally.

If we were not alarmed, we would be amused at the change of face in the medical trust. Up until the "fixers" took charge of the government, the medical profession turned up its collective noses at the newspapers. They would have nothing to do with advertising, and tried to punish those few who did advertise, calling them quacks. The situation has changed. The medical profession is sending out warnings of the coming disaster, if the medical bill passes Congress. It is socialized medicine in its worst form. All newspaper men are opposed to it because of its regimentation. The profession might have saved itself some of the present embarrassment had it not been so tide bound in the past. To the profession it is termed "ethics," to the laymen it was pure short sightedness and a determination to build up an exclusive thrust.

Unemployment is still the most-talked-around question in the nation. First, we hear that most of the war workers are loaded with money and are simply taking a vacation until they get ready to go back to their former jobs; and then we hear that most of the war workers are broke and are drifting around helplessly. We read that there are 20 different agencies trying to help the discharged G-I's with their employment problems, and that the men are wearing out their shoes and patience as they go from one office to another seeking aid and advice. In the meanwhile, the conflicting bureaucrats are giving out misinformation in huge quantities, much to the confusion of the public.

Taxpayers of the Canyon Independent School District are called upon to vote on the proposal to increase the tax rate from $1.00 on the $100 valuation to $1.50. Citizens usually take our school system for granted, and pay little attention to the schools, so long as everything is running smoothly. Very few people take the time to vote in school elections. This tax election will probably bring out more voters. It is the duty of every taxpayer to study the problem which confronts the school trustees; to confer with them regarding the issues; and then go to the polls. Go to the polls next Saturday and vote your sentiment on this issue. A minority rules when the majority stays at home.

John McCarty of the Amarillo Globe-News went to Arkansas to see how that state was planning for reconversion. He found that the people of Arkansas were using the resources that nature gave them as a stepping stone toward reconversion. Too many folks want Washington to do things for them. Panhandle folks are usually resourceful, and if we shall use our resources properly we can look after ourselves without the aid of the bureaucrats. In the meanwhile John should tell Old Tack that the biggest thing the Panhandle needs is more rain and let the weather prophet do some more worrying.

We read high praise of Congressman Lyndon Johnson, potential candidate for Governor in 1946. He called the voters of his district for a mass meeting to discuss legislation with them. Johnson is behind the times. Our Congressman Gene Worley traveled over his district as far as possible meeting the people and talking with them. When the Japs folded suddenly he was called back to Washington and did not get to visit in Canyon and other towns of the district.

One of the silliest wastes of public funds comes to us weekly. It is a full report on the sale of surplus war materials—after the sales are made. Every newspaper in the nation receives 20 to 25 sheets of mimeographed items every week—after the sale.

Some Americans think that Russia is pretty hard. Just suppose that America had been invaded twice in 25 years; and that everything we had had been carted away by the invaders, including all able bodied men; just how would we feel about Germany?

The poor Japs are trying to convince us that the atomic bomb is inhuman. They say that they will forget the bomb, if we will forget Pearl Harbor. This time, America is not going to forget to the extent of allowing the dictators a free hand in another attempt to destroy civilization.

Terry County Herald, Brownfield: Let us all place credit where credit is due, and one big reason why we won this war is that the American farmers were behind it 100 per cent. It is true they got no Army-Navy E's to run up on top of their barns or homes. It is true they worked early and late hours with no thought of strikes. They sent their sons into the armies and navies and made out the best way they could with short help and lots of times very inefficient help, if any. They not only clothed and fed the nation, but our fighting allies and many of the liberated people who had been under bondage of the Nazirats and Japrats. On top of all this, much of their surplus grain went into alcohol and from that into synthetic rubber to keep our war machines going. We think congress owes our farmers a vote of thanks. All hail the American farmer!

STRANGE INTERLUDE

Little girls like pretty dolls,
Little boys like soldiers new—
Yet when they start growing up,
It seems that the reverse is true!

"Prosperity has ruined many a good man," said the lean moralizer.

"Well," said his fat friend, "if I was going to be ruined I'd choose prosperity to do it."

"Now look what you've done. You've lost the place where I was getting my recipe, and now I haven't the least idea what I'm cooking."

SAYS SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE:

Despite Victory Used Fat Saving Must Go On!

Every woman in America should know that our country continues to face a serious fat shortage. And victory over Japan won't solve the problem immediately. We must keep on saving used fats in our kitchens!

If you have any thought that saving used fats is one of those wartime chores we can drop, now that Victory is here, please consider these facts and tell them to your neighbors.

America still needs salvaged fats. Not even at the peak of our war effort, when fats were required for mountains of shells and bombs and medicines, in addition to the ever-present need for soap, were our needs for salvaging fat greater than now. Our stocks have been drained by four long years of war, and there isn't enough on hand to meet all requirements.

Don't let "Victory psychology" blind you to this national need! If housewives stop saving fats now, the shortage will become even more critical.

Don't let a single drop of used fats go to waste! Little trimmings of fat left on the platter at the table, scraps left on plates, and even the skimmings of soups and gravies are important. It is the consistent saving of even these small amounts that counts.

Don't turn in fats that can be re-used! But some fats, such as those rendered from lamb and mutton, are not suitable for re-use. Put them immediately in the salvage can. And, with other fats, after you've got all cooking good out of them, there is always a little left. No matter how little it is, save it.

Your butcher will still give you 4¢ and 2 red points for every pound you turn in. Save consistently—save every drop you can—every day—until Uncle Sam says the job is done.

Clinton P. Anderson
Secretary of Agriculture

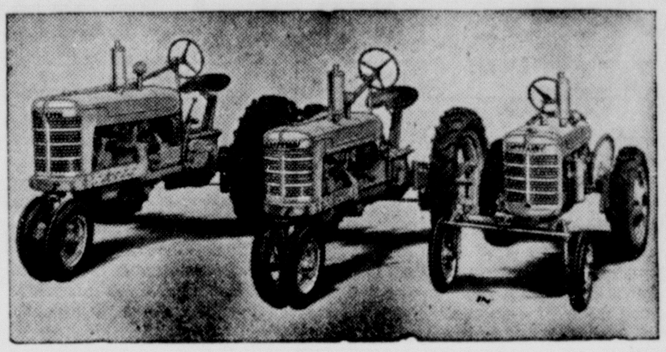
Start Right NOW!



Next year's crop depends upon the machinery available to plant and harvest that crop.

It is pretty certain now that lack of material and skilled labor will slow down the production of new INTERNATIONAL farm equipment. Some farmers will be able to get their new machines; others will have to wait a litle longer. Randall county farmers will not become impatient in this delay, since they recognize that INTERNATIONAL is the machine which they need. They have depended upon INTERNATIONAL for many years.

In the meanwhile, this is an invitation for all farmers to bring their farm equipment to our well equipped shop where our skilled workmen will do a good job in putting it in first class condition.

When you are having machinery trouble, please remember that this Repair Shop stands ready to give you prompt service. It will pay you to have your farm equipment checked before you have to start running it in the fields.

America will have to furnish much food to Europe next year, so get ready for a big crop in 1946 by having your farm equipment put in the best condition.

Jeanne Shaver Is Bride of Lt. T. H. Lair Friday

The marriage of Jeanne Shaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Shaver, of Knox City, to Lt. Thomas H. Lair, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lair of Canyon, was solemnized at high noon, Friday, September 7, at the First Methodist Church in Knox City. The Rev. Lloyd Hamilton, pastor, pronounced the rites before an altar of fern and pink carnations with tall baskets of white gladiola.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white brocade satin wedding gown with finger tip veil and long white gloves, carrying a bouguet of orchids surrounded by gardenias. For something old and borrowed, the bride wore a cameo necklace belonging to an aunt, and for something blue she wore a blue bow. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mayme Shaver, as maid-of-honor, wearing a lime jersey dress with shoulder length veil, long lime gloves and a bouquet of red roses. Mr. Lair served his son as best man.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. E. Q. Warren gave several piano selections and accompanied Mrs. Jack Wilson and Mrs. Bedford Smith as they sang "Because" and "One Alone." Dale Graham, RM3c, and Maj. A. B. Robertson, brother-in-law of the bride, were ushers.

Mrs. Lair is a graduate of the Knox City schools and this past August received her B. S. degree in dramatics and speech from West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon. While a student there she held an important place in all activities, pledging Gamma Phi Sorority of which she was treasurer in her junior year and president her senior year. Her second year in school she took vows of the National Dramatic Fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega, and her work was so progressive that the office of presidency was given her in 1944. In her last two years of college she made Who's Who Among Students of Colleges and Universities of America.

She was chairman of Interclub Council and held Senate Post No. 1 in the student government for three years. Her last honor was given her when the football team unanimously elected her their queen in 1944-45.

Lt. Lair attended college at West Texas State for two years before entering the Army Air Corps in 1942. He served with the 8th Air Force in England until October of 1943 when he was forced down in enemy territory and was captured. He was a prisoner of war for 19 months before being liberated by Patton's Army in April. He was returned to the United States the first of June.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. A. B. Robertson presided at the tiered wedding cake, and Mrs. John Hansen served punch to the guests. Both are sisters of the bride.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lair and son, Stanley, of Canyon, Mrs. Jewell Davis, Miss Doris Davis and Miss Maggie Avent of Amarillo, Miss Shirley Byars of Canyon, Miss Evelyn Elliott of Amarillo, Mrs. R. A. Shaver, Sr., and Mrs. John Trimmier of Rochester.

Following the reception the couple left immediately for Houston where they will be until the 11th, at which time Lr. Lair will report to Fort Sam Houston for re-assignment. The bride's going away costume was a gray wool suit with brown accessories.

Buffs Open Season With 56-7 Win Over Eastern New Mexico

Soldier Audience Sees Captain Bledsoe et al Overwhelm Greyhounds

Already off to a booming start, the Buffaloes looked toward Baylor university this week following their 56-7 win over a smallish and inexperienced Eastern New Mexico College eleven Saturday.

Fast W. T. backs beat a tattoo on the local turf as the strong Buffalo line tore apart the light Portales forwards. Hap Rogers started the parade by galloping 35 yards when the Buffs first got possession of the ball. Captain Hoss Bledsoe converted from placement. Stafford added another touchdown on a short plunge before the first quarter ended.

In the second quarter, Rufus Bradford scored from the 12-yard line and again from the 15 to raise the total to 25-0 at halftime.

Willard Hedges raced 36 yards in the third quarter and Bledsoe converted. Glen Stafford scored from the 11-yard mark and Don Leach from the 9 to raise the score to 44-0. Billy Greenfield pushed from the 6 to score early in the fourth quarter. At this point the Greyhounds threw a short pass, Jack Page to Ernest Pompeo, and the latter ran 69 yards to score. Page converted. But the Buffs were not through. Jimmy Terrell made the last counter from the 1-yard line.

This week the Buffs will meet Baylor U. for the first time. It will be a Saturday night affair in Waco.

JUST SUPPOSE

The superlatively graceful Isadora Duncan, famed for her amazing nimbleness, was a great believer in eugenics. Once, she wrote to George Bernard Shaw and suggested that if they were the parents of a child, it would undoubtedly be super-human.

'Just imagine," she wrote, "what a wonderful child it would be, with my body and your brains."

Shaw wrote back:

"If everything turned out as you suggest, no doubt the child would be as wonderful as you say. But suppose it had my body and your brains?"

My grandpa had a thousand-and-one sayings. He didn't bother with quotation marks; he just reached up and took what he wanted. The wisdom of years of practical experience is found in such observations as:

If a man fools me once, that's his fault. If he fools me twice, that's my fault.

And it's the hit dog that hollers.

No gentleman will hurt me; no other can.

What is a gentleman? He is one who is kind and courteous to bootblacks and newsboys—in short, to those to whom he doesn't have to be.

The Lord gave us our relatives but, thank the Lord, we can choose our own friends.

All of us can admire the rich man's yard and mansion without having to mow the lawn or pay taxes on the house.

It's all right for a man to own some things but if he gets too many, they own him. A Chinaman said, Though a man drink at a river, he can only drink a bellyful.

You don't have to seek an opportunity for revenge; time will bring it. But the finest revenge is not to take it.

The race for Governor is off to the earliest start ever known. In fact, one candidate who has been occupying another State office for the last three years has been running all that time and he has been putting big advertisements in the big city newspapers, the ads being paid for by a mysterious group of "little business men," so called.

And another who has been in State office several years is reported to be assembling a fabulous campaign fund and is already buying up time on the radio for next year.

John Knight Was Almost Victim of Gasoline Fire

To The News:

I've heard of boys losing their shirts on a dice, or a ball game, but I came near losing mine by the gasoline fire route at a filling station, through no fault of the station.

A few young Americans were trying to remove the plastic hand holds from a bicycle to replace with new ones. The old ones were stuck tight, so the end was fired, to burn it off. The boys had some gasoline in a gallon can, and started to pour some gas on to help the fire. However, the boy changed his mind and started to set the can down. A drop of the burning plastic fell into the can and lighted the gasoline. The boy dropped the can which splattered the burning gas just as I was passing. The fire and gas spalshed on the bottom of my shirt pocket, which I knocked off quickly; and then showed the boys how to remove the old hand holds.

The fire got part of one boy's hair, and the burning gasoline on the concrete was extinguished by the water hose.

My advice is: Boys cannot be too careful with explosives.

John Knight.

The two-bit cigar now takes fivecents worth of matches to keep it lit.

School Tax Election

The question that each tax payer in this Independent School District should ask himself before he or she votes next Saturday is, should the tax be raised higher than they are now.

The school tax in this district is already too high, and if the voters vote next Saturday to raise the rate higher, it will work an unnecessary burden on the property owners of the district. No one will question the necessity of the district needing more money, as any one knows that it takes more money to run the school now than it did a few years ago, but the question is: Is this the proper way to get the money; we should face the facts as they are, and if we face the facts as we should, then we are forced to say that this is the improper way to get the tax.

If the common school districts of Randall county that are using the independent school in Canyon, and getting the same benefit from the school as the taxpayer who lives in the independent district were paying their part of the tax load, then it would not be necessary for this independent district to vote a higher rate.

We will compare the taxes in this independent school district with the tax in common school district.

If you own a section of land in the independent district, you are paying around $100.00 per year school tax. This is about an average over the district, and if you own a section in one of the common school districts, and the rate is fifty cents per $100.00 valuation, then you are paying about $16.00 school tax; if the rate is seventy-five cents on the $100.00 valuation, then you will pay about $24.00, and if the rate is $1.00 on the $100.00 valuation, then you will pay about $32.00. There are three different rates in the county in the common school district. These figures are facts and not just guess work. They are taken from the record of the independent school district and from the common school districts.

It has been said that this raise in rate would only raise your tax on your home in Canyon or your farm in this independent district a few cents. Don't be deceived. It will raise your taxes and you will know that they have been raised when you get your tax statement. Here are the figures on it. If you own a home in Canyon that is valued at $2,000.00 for school tax, then this raise is fifty cents on the $100.00 valuation; it will raise your taxes $10.00. If they raise the rate twenty-five cents the tax would be raised $5.00. If you own a section of land in the district and the section is valued at $10,000.00, and most of the sections in this district are valued this high for school purposes, then you would pay $50.00 per section more. If the rate is raised fifty cents, or if it is raised twenty-five cents, then you would pay $25.00 more. This raise is no small item, and should be seriously considered before a taxpayer votes next Saturday. Why should the taxpayers of this district continue to pay the bill for the common school districts of Randall county?

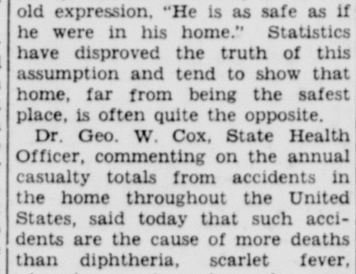
Home Accidents Most Critical

For many years the ultimate in safety has been conveyed in the old expression, "He is as safe as if he were in his home." Statistics have disproved the truth of this assumption and tend to show that home, far from being the safest place, is often quite the opposite.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, commenting on the annual casualty totals from accidents in the home throughout the United States, said today that such accidents are the cause of more deaths than diphtheria, scarlet fever, whooping cough, and measles combined; of over two-thirds as many as automobile accidents; and of over a third as many deaths as tuberculosis.

"Slippery floor surfaces, lack of handrails on cellar steps, absence of protective gates at the top of stairs in homes where there are small children, toys left on stairs, unanchored small rugs on polished floors, poisons in medicine cabinets accessible to children, and the careless storage of sharp tools and firearms are some of the more prominent hazards resulting in home accidents, Dr. Cox said.

"However," he added, "in the last analysis, the problem boils down to one of reasonable individual caution. We cannot view complacently the more than 30,000 deaths in the United States annually due to home accidents. These deaths, chargeable to remediable carelessness, can and should be reduced."



AFTER YOUR home burns, the mortgagee will be the first to collect on your fire insurance. The balance is all you will receive.

WILL this amount be sufficient to reimburse you for any loss of your equity? If not, take out additional insurance NOW—through . . .

Unusual Record in Safety Made at WT's Airport

Safety has first consideration at the West Texas State Flying Field.

In about 35,000 flights originating at this college field, no injury was suffered by the more than 1,800 students concerned! This exemplary record covered approximately 20,000 flight hours. It is illustrative of the fact that flying conditions at West Texas State are extraordinarily good.

Modern equipment, well maintained in adequate shops by experienced personnel, is supplemented by a system of thorough inspections. Intensive ground school work gives students confidence in themselves and their training planes. Instructors on the flight line are firm, friendly, and keenly interested in the progress of each student.

Sunshine, level terrain, and much good flying weather make the Panhandle plains an especially favorable place for aviation. The thrill of soaring over its wheat fields, canyons, oil fields, cities and industries is destined to be enjoyed by

Hundred Piece Band Is Goal As New Uniforms Are Bought

Colorful Organization Will Travel More This Session—Director Outlines Program

"All things considered, this is the year in which students with experience should join the band," says Director Glenn A. Truax. There are several reasons why this is true:

There are 100 new uniforms made of pure wool whipcord. The coat, Hussar style, with military style collar with white shoulder knots, is maroon color trimmed in white. The trousers are a neutral grey trimmed in red. The shako is a Hussar style white fur with flaring sides. Attached to the top is an 8 inch maroon ostrich plume. For windy weather, there is the overseas cap in maroon trimmed in white. The twirling ensemble will have uniforms of white skinners satin trimmed in red. The skirts are circular and of medium length above the knee. The co-drum majors will have uniforms alike except one is made for a boy and the other a girl. These uniforms are the best available and it is expected that they will make a hit wherever they are worn.

This is a post-war period in which college organizations may do more traveling to games outside of the campus. It is possible that the band will go with the team to play Texas Tech on October 27. There also is a possible trip to Colorado Springs to play Colorado College on November 17.

More band students will be coming to West Texas State College because of the enlarged program. The band will be used to advertise the college. As soon as the membership reaches 100, a photograph for use in newspapers of the Panhandle will be taken in the new uniforms. The picture of the Buff Band will be placed on the front page of the piano copy of the college songs soon to be published.

Some of the first chair players will come from such towns as Amarillo, Pampa, Plainview, Hereford, Borger, White Deer, Clarendon, Shamrock, Perryton, Phillips, Dumas, Hale Center, Canyon, De Leon, Clovis, New Mexico and Tucumcari, N. M.

Director Truax anticipates a good turn-out for band this fall. There will be no entrance examinations this year, in as much as emphasis will be placed upon getting complete instrumentation for a 100-piece band. The college has 30 band instruments, which have just been completely overhauled and are for use by players to be selected by the director.

The band will meet Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Fridays at the fourth period and Thursdays at 7:30 p. m. in the Band House.

Reconversion

keeps Long Distance busier than ever

Long distance lines, which rushed through messages for the army, navy, and war industries, now are loaded with calls important to the nation's reconversion.

Businessmen—as they switch from war to peace time production—are making more calls than ever before. Individuals, too, are using long distance more often as they locate new jobs and new homes in other cities.

These important calls have added to the load on crowded telephone circuits, a load—believe it or not—unequaled even in the busiest days of the war.

And servicemen—even though the war is over—still need to make hundreds of long distance calls every day from army camps, debarkation points, separation centers, and hospitals. Their calls home are just as important as ever.

So if the operator says, "The circuits are busy," and your long distance call is delayed, we hope you'll understand.

Thanks for your patience.

Slaughtering May Be Out From OPA Control Soon

All slaughtering controls on the amount of meat anyone may slaughter and transfer have been abolished, the District Office of Price Administration has announced.

On September 8 OPA ended controls over how much livestock could be slaughtered and where the meat was to be shipped. The pricing order limiting the maximum percentages of good and choice cattle that a slaughterer may kill during an accounting period was revoked September 12.

Farmers and other slaughterers may now slaughter and sell all the meat they care to without regard to quantity. However, they are still required to observe the rationing and price control requirements which still remain in effect.
